ROSES WITH A SUSTAINABLE LEGACY

Since 1997, Hoja Verde has been a Ecuadorian renowned trusted floral partner, dedicated to growing high-quality and eco-friendly roses. Our commitment to 360° responsibility: environmental, social, and sustainable guides everything we do.

We believe in responsible growing and take pride in nurturing the environment, contributing to society, and developing a new economic model. Through our roses, we create beauty while redefining global quality standards by fostering a culture rooted in quality across our people, processes, and products.

For us, these standards are not just a requirement, they have become our mantra and philosophy pillars, which are represented as footprint on our logo's company and its applications ; besides of making Hoja Verde a B Corporation.

And it's not just us saying this; it is backed by globally recognized entities and certifications such as :
